

TIMES ONLINE

From The Sunday Times

March 15, 2009

Top 10 hardbacks - non-fiction

The Sunday Times Bestseller List, March 15, 2009

1 Journey to the Edge of the World

by Billy Connolly

Last week 1 Weeks on list 3

Sales last week 4,050 To date 9,815

(Headline £20)

Comedian sails to the Pacific via the Northwest Passage

Buy the book

Read an extract

2 Loose Women: Girls' Night In

New entry

Sales last week 3,835 To date 4,065

(Hodder £14.99)

Wise and witty advice and innuendo from the presenters of the ITV show

Buy the book

3 The Horse Boy

by Rupert Isaacson

New entry

Sales last week 2,335 To date 2,665

(Viking £16.99)

Father travels to Mongolia seeking the help of horses to heal his autistic son

Buy the book

Shamans and horses

4 Catch a Falling Star

by Jade Goody

Last week 15 Weeks on list 1

Sales last week 2,215 To date 14,495

(John Blake £18.99)

Autobiography of the reality-TV star with terminal cancer

Buy the book

5 Dewey

by Vicki Myron

Last week 3 Weeks on list 3

Sales last week 2,085 To date 6,270

(Hodder £14.99)

How a small-town library cat touched the lives of many

Buy the book

6 The Victorians

by Jeremy Paxman

Last week 2 Weeks on list 3

Sales last week 1,975 To date 6,270